

Jose Estrada

When he was in Middle School, Jose didn't always make the best decisions. That's when he met Cathy Davis, who became his Student Support Specialist. Jose was a well-mannered student who loved music. With Cathy's help, Jose addressed turned around his truancy issues and participated in Why Try, a resilience education curriculum that provides simple, hands-on solutions for dropout prevention, violence prevention, truancy reduction, and increased academic success. He also joined Man Cave. ManCave emphasizes behaviors which bring success in any field, with discussions about topics like respect, responsibility, integrity, and honesty. ManCave emphasizes how important these characteristics are to succeed in a career, but also as person contributing to society. Jose was surrounded with resources while at Thomasville Middle School. Before transitioning to the high school, Jose met with Angel Harper, his High School Student Support Specialist.

Jose Estrada has proven that the foundation laid at Thomasville Middle School under the guidance of Cathy Davis has helped him. He is well on his way to a successful high school experience which will launch him into a successful life.
